State Forester Notice of Rescission of Fire Restrictions On All State-Owned Lands Outside Incorporated Municipalities in Arizona Effective August 8, 2014

Due to the continuation of the monsoonal weather pattern throughout Arizona, the Arizona State Forestry Division has rescinded fire restrictions on all State-owned and State-managed lands in Arizona. This affects the three counties (Mohave, Yuma, and La Paz) that remained in State 1 fire restrictions; fire restrictions were rescinded in all other counties on July 11, 2014.

This rescission covers all unincorporated State-owned and State-managed lands, including all State Trust lands, all Game and Fish Wildlife Areas, all Arizona State Parks, and all Department of Transportation highway right-of-way property not owned by Federal land management agencies. For further information regarding Arizona State Parks, please visit <http://azstateparks.com>.

For more information regarding fire restrictions and rescissions, please visit the fire restrictions website at <http://firerestrictions.us/az>. Additional information about the Arizona State Forestry Division may be found at www.azsf.gov.

This rescission is effective August 8, 2014.
